What You Need To Know About Visitor Visas in Canada?

1. ....Canada is home to millions of visitors each year. In fact, more than 35 million people visit Canada every year to enjoy the many opportunities the country has to offer, including visiting family and friends.
  2. ....If you wish to come to Canada for a temporary purpose, you may need a TRV, unless you are a citizen from a “visa exempt” country. (...) Before starting the Canada visitor visa application process, it’s important to understand whether you need one or not before entering Canada. Click here to find out if you need a Canada visitor visa before your travels!
  3. .... Most visitors can stay for up to 6 months in Canada. At the port of entry, the immigration border services may allow you to stay for less or more than 6 months. Once you are given a period of stay, they’ll put the date you need to leave in your passport. The immigration officer might also give you a document called a visitor record, which will show the date you need to leave by.
  4. .... To qualify for a TRV, there are a few basic requirements you must meet which include (...):
    - have a valid travel document (like a passport)
    - have no criminal or immigration-related convictions
    - convince an immigration officer that you have ties—such as a job, home, financial assets, or family that will take you back to your home country
    - convince an immigration officer that you will leave Canada at the end of your visit
    - have enough money for your stay.
- 5.... There are three major steps to successfully applying for Canada Visitor Visa. These steps include: Step 1: Check if you’re eligible to travel to Canada, Step 2: Gather all your supporting documents, Step 3: Apply Online.
- A. A few things to do.
- B. How long can I stay in Canada on a Tourist Visa?
- C. Not for everyone!
- D. Briefly about tourists in Canada.
- E. Do I need a Visa?
- F. I want to come to Canada.

Left or right?

Today, 75% of cars drive on the right, but it didn't always use to be like that. In fact, everybody used to travel on the left! In Roman times, roads (1) ..... dangerous and travellers (2) ..... swords in their right hands. Travellers on horses (3) ..... on the left side of the road so that the right hand was free to use the sword.

Then Napoleon (4) .....the rule. Why? Because he was a revolutionary! Before the French Revolution, the aristocracy (5) ..... on the left and poor people (6) ..... on the right. After the Revolution, the aristocracy joined the poor people on the right and driving on the right (7) ..... the new law. What about the rest of the world? China, Portugal, Sweden and parts of Canada used to drive on the left and only changed the law during the mid-twentieth century. More than fifty countries including the UK, Australia, Japan and India still drive on the left today.
