ROZUMIENIE TEKSTU CZYTANEGO

Przeczytaj poniższe teksty. Z podanych odpowiedzi wybierz właściwą, zgodną z treścią tekstu. Zaznacz jedną z czterech możliwości, zakreślając kółkiem literę A, B, lub C.

Za każdą poprawną odpowiedź otrzymasz 1 punkt.

Tekst 1

The crime happened in the middle of a busy city centre and involved a peculiar twist. Two armed robbers stole not just paintings worth £2 million from York City Gallery but also robbed an attendant of £20 to buy petrol for their getaway car. The attendant said he had been petrified and would probably agree to anything the robbers might ask him to do. The robbers, who had been masked, are believed to have been on a 'paid-in-advance' mission. They made off with 20 works of art, including a £500,000 Turner watercolour.

According to the text, the robbers

- A were probably hired by somebody else
- B stole a car from a person who was watching them
- C were surely unaware of the paintings' real value

/na podstawie materiałów wyd. Longman/

Tekst 2

I was waiting for the bus and I sort of half noticed this man coming along the pavement. I kept looking at my watch because I was worried about the time so I didn't really pay much attention until I heard some glass breaking. I turned round and saw this man grab a handful of gold chains. It was a jeweller's shop but I suppose he only wanted things he could run off with, so he left the vases and stuff and just took the necklaces.

What was stolen?

- A watches
- B vases
- C items of jewellery

/na podstawie materiałów wyd. Express Publishing/

Tekst 3

Late last night thieves broke into MacHannan Hall where the late Lady Betty Baldrige's most valuable items were on display for public viewing. They managed to break in through the rear entrance and enter the room where her most priceless jewels were on display. They made straight for 'The Lonely Wanderer' by Van Plombenberg. The thieves had obviously planned the break-in very carefully and had left with the priceless porcelain figure within seconds. Police would like to hear from any eye witnesses.

What did thieves get away with?

- A a painting
- B a statue
- C some jewels

/na podstawie materiałów wyd. Express Publishing/

Tekst 4

Rest on the Flight to Egypt is probably the only small-scale Titian in private hands. Painted in 1510 and 1511 when Titian, the founder of high Renaissance painting in Venice, was in his early 20s. The painting's small size may well have made it attractive to thieves as it could easily be carried. Titian expert Dr Paul Sherman of Cambridge University said, 'It is a lovely little thing, a little gem and it is very sad that it has disappeared. Only a couple of other small pictures by Titian are known - one in Bergamo, Italy and one in the Metropolitan Museum in New York.'

The painting by Titian has been

- A lost
- B stolen
- C found

/na podstawie materiałów wyd. Express Publishing/

Tekst 5

Local newspaper reporter Alan Francis made the news himself when he tackled an armed robber and has now been awarded the Queen's commendation for bravery. Mr Francis saw a man armed with a shotgun holding up customers at a Little Chef restaurant in Putney two years ago. He flung himself at the man, wrestled him to the ground and, even though the shotgun went off, he held on to him until the police arrived. The robber, Frank Mellin, has been jailed for 8 years.

A man has been given award for

- A shooting a robber
- B visiting a Little Chef restaurant
- C arresting a robber
